ITC Has the Top Experts

ITC is a multi-disciplinary organization that focuses on providing the highest quality resources for conducting aircraft accident investigations, aviation safety research, and educational training. A hallmark trait of ITC is the ability to operate as a collaborative of organizations that organize tasks around the client's needs. ITC drives innovation and problem solving by establishing and providing cohesive, non-traditional, highly skilled teams that bring fresh perspectives.

ITC's teams are composed of and supported by individuals having different backgrounds and areas of expertise. It is this diversity that increases the likelihood that multiple alternatives will be generated and evaluated.
